

№ 11. NO, THOUGH I SHRINK STILL.

THOMAS WEEKES
 Edited by E. H. Fellowes
 Revised by T. Dart

Moderate speed.

SOPRANO. (CANTUS.)
 1. No, no, though I shrink still, I shrink
 2. What, what, if she fain so, if she fain so,

SOPRANO. (TENOR.)
 1. No, no, though I shrink still, I shrink
 2. What, what, if she fain so, she fain

ALTO. (BASSUS.)
 1. No, no, though I shrink still, yet I
 2. What, what, if she fain so, if she fain so, then I

PIANOFORTE.
(For rehearsal only.)

yet I think still that a wink will do what lov - ers, then I plain go, in a vein to ov - er - throw her still, yet I think still that a wink will do what so, then I plain go, in a vein to ov - er -

think still that a wink will do what lov - - - ers
 plain go, in a vein to ov - er - throw her

N.B. The words of the second stanza must not be sung until both sections, with the repeats, have been sung to the words of the first stanza.